

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Clear Channel owns most of the talk news stations as well as music in my area now. All the talk shows are of the same opinion and it's not mine. I would hate to think that could happen to local newspapers also. Diversity is good for democracy so I would think we need more diversity not less.
